Vote 'Yes' Tuesday For Port Development, Jobs, Payrolls

Council Delays Utility Plant Appraisal Plan

Board Asks 2 Weeks To Study Proposal Of Advisors

At least two weeks' delay to study the proposal of the Citizens' Advisory Board that Redwood City secure an appraisal of the privately-owned power plant here was taken last night by the city council.

The suggestion was made by the advisory board in a communication based upon studies made by Philip Owen, chairman of the utility committee, who reported this step eventually necessary if effective tax reductions are to be secured.

Chairman Norman W. Pendleton of the advisory group reported that the citizens had found reduction of city costs "no easy job" and that "little or nothing" could be added to present efforts.

Owen's report showed by comparison that the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) was supplying the same amount of power for $23.69 for which a private firm had charged $65.14.

The committee also cited the following net annual profits for five California cities now operating electric plants:

Palo Alto—$79,256.79.
Redding—$44,227.83.
Riverside—$168,486.94.
Burbank—$79,712.67.
Roseville—$33,886.90.

"The evidence thus presented," Chairman Pendleton reported, "proves that it is possible to operate a municipal utility successfully and thereby create a surplus which can be applied to the cost of city government as is done in 222 cities."

Councilmen James Eva and Evans Fletcher asked time to consider the appraisal proposal.

Since the pre-war days the consumption of beer in Germany has dropped from 179 pints per head of the population to 90 pints.

PORT FOES SPEAK WELL OF HARBOR IN SHOW OF FEAR

[EDITORIAL]

When a freight agent of a private railway speaks against the San Mateo County Harbor—

And the employe of a private steamship line does likewise—

Do you suppose they are speaking for the public's interest?

We hold they are not. The mere fact that private interests are the only ones opposing the harbor speaks well of its prospects for success. If there would be no tonnage attracted to Redwood Harbor then neither the private shippers nor the private railways should be concerned.

It is noteworthy that of the 300 or more citizens who gathered at the harbor rally in Burlingame the only ones who protested the harbor were connected with private interests which feared the competition of the county port.

And it was noteworthy, too, that the public represented by that cross-section of listeners was heartily in favor of the harbor project as demonstrated by their applause of talks favorable to the proposal.

It is almost a clear-cut certainty that San Mateo county voters will on August 28 lend their credit in the form of the $460,000 bonds to match the federal gifts totaling $203,000 to develop the harbor and push the county ahead industrially.

Four People Hurt In Bayshore Crash

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20—Four San Francisco people were injured here late last night when a car driven by Charles Kelly collided with a parked vehicle belonging to William Brobshoff, who had stopped to repair a puncture.

Bernice Gorman, 1240 Alameda boulevard, riding with Kelly, sustained a fracture of the nose and minor cuts; Mary Cassi, 49 Huntington avenue, also with Kelly, sustained cuts; Lorraine Wilkinson, 366 Park street, in Drobshoff car, was bruised; and Kelly was bruised and shaken. Drobshoff escaped uninjured. All were treated at the South San Francisco Hospital.

COUNTY TAX IS SLASHED THREE CENTS BY BOARD

Slashed to the point where a prospective 70-cent increase in the first tentative budget had been wiped out, the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors Tuesday announced a tentative tax rate of $2,049—a rate 3.4 below last year's figures of $2.083.

No salary reductions in the county were necessary.

With no verbal or written protests offered, the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors today concluded its budget studies and fixed the 1934-35 county tax rate at $2.049, a reduction of 3.4 cents below last year's rate of $2.083. The rate was fixed by motion today and will be formally set at the first meeting in September as required by law.

The board waited in vain for three hours today for any taxpayers to enter either verbal or written protests. Not a single complaint was lodged, and the board concluded that the budget met with approval.

Several taxpayers who attended the hearing said they believed the board had done well to take care of increased demands without being forced to raise the tax rate and offered no objections.

Dr. C. V. Thompson, board chairman, said the lack of protests was a high compliment to the board.

Early budget stories based upon departmental demands, which the board carried to the state for consideration, indicated the prospects of a 70-cent increase in county taxes. The supervisors set to work to tear down that increase and wiped it out, cutting out three cents additional, as well.

The budget totals $1,134,731.47, from which deductable allowances for bonus and interest, including $26,232.47 for street defaults done under the 1915 act, are to be made, bringing the general government requirement to $1,007,386.47.

The state board of equalization allowed a budget of $1,012,378.03, so that the county's demands are $4,992.03 below the 5% increase limitation.

An item of $10,000 was added for beaches by the board without disturbing the rate. This took 2.3 cents of the rate.

The board retained its $1,000,000 relief program with 30% of it to be raised from county funds and 70% from SERA.

The motion fixing the rate at $2.049 was made by Supervisor Poole, and was seconded by Supervisor Manuel Francis.

Budget requests now total $1,007,125, which is $5,253.08 under the $1,012,378.08 which the state board of equalization allowed in its ruling of yesterday.

To this $1,007,125 must be added the $26,232.47 for interest on 1915 street defaults, giving a total request of $1,033,357.47.

Yesterday's requests totaled $1,160,886.47 from which overnight slashes took $127,529, to make the total request figure read $1,033,357.47, as above.

Slashes totaling $368,382.21 have now been made by the board in the budget requests and budget allowances since the tentative set-up.

Chief among the items cut out was $101,794.21 for 1915 street defaults, the budget allowing $26,232.47 for interest instead of an item of $128,026.68 for principal and interest.

Unemployment demands were cut $98,963.98 from $148,963.98 to $50,000. The county, however, will retain a $300,000 program to match SERA's contributions to continue the contemplated $1,000,000 relief program. The county today cut its share from 40 to 30 per cent, shifting 10 per cent more of the burden onto the state.

Besides the $50,000 to be raised by direct taxation for relief, the county will have $174,000 on hand from state relief loans and $70,000 of gas tax funds. This makes a $294,000 fund available for unemployment relief, or 30 per cent of the total job relief program.

In addition, the board increased the unbudgeted reserve from $25,000 to $50,000 and planned to keep about $30,000 of this available for relief, if needed.

Record of Her Term Is Cited By Mrs. Brown

In her appeal to the voters of San Mateo county for re-election, Supervisor Rosalie M. Brown is pointing to her record of 14 years service as the representative of the Second Township.,

Because of her experience on the board, her familiarity with every section of the county, and the wide knowledge she has gained of the needs of the people, Supervisor Brown feels that she is better qualified than ever to fill the position she now holds.

In asking for the support of the electors on August 28, Supervisor Brown calls attention to her stand in favor of the new charter, which she believes now should have some revision in order to make it the smooth working system intended by the freeholders.

The incumbent prides herself on being the instigator of the elimination of the special 10-cent road tax and a strong advocate of the abolishment of the 40-cent road tax.

Commenting on the unemployment and tax situations, Supervisor Brown says:

"I am mindful of the condition of many of our fellow citizens, and have done all I could both as an official and as a citizen to help relieve the conditions resulting from unemployment. It is my ambition to continue to help those in distress.

"I am fully cognizant of the tax burden. As it has been in the past, it shall be my most earnest desire to keep the tax situation at the lowest possible rate, consistent with proper government and the needs of the unemployed."

Kiwanis Club 'Bark' Backs Harbor Project

The "Redwood Bark," publication of the Redwood City Kiwanis Club, today strongly urged endorsement of the $460,000 bond issue which will lend the credit of San Mateo county to harbor development in Redwood creek.

"This is a matter of grave importance to San Mateo county and the carrying of the bonds will mean the great industrial development of the peninsula," it said. "Let every Kiwanian put his shoulder to the wheel and work day and night to help the success of this great project."

"Pest Exterminator" Candidate Announces

Great interest is being manifested in the latest political campaign being staged in Redwood City by unknown parties. Cards have been distributed saying: "Vote for Mr. Sweeney" for County Pest Exterminator.

Upon checking with County Manager Walter Kellogg, no record of a "county pest exterminator" could be found on the payroll and amazement has been expressed by old-time politicians at the apparent porularity "Mr. Sweeney" has gained in the last few days.

It is declared that further data regarding this candidate will be given out before the voters go to the polls on Tuesday.

Beer Campaign Workers Report Good Response

Rapidly bringing to a close a county-wide campaign for the election of Fred E. Beer, San Mateo, as supervisor for the Second (San Mateo-Belmont-San Carlos) district, his campaign executive committee today predicted his election to the post in the primary next Tuesday.

Visiting every section of the county, Beer and his workers said they had met with favorable response, and were confident of strong support from the entire county, which votes this year for the first time on supervisorial candidates. In their campaigning, Beer's workers say, they found great demand for capable and experienced public officials, who have shown a keen understanding of the county's problems.

In his closing appeal to the voters, Beer has cited his many qualifications for the supervisorial post In his more than a score of years residence in this county, the candidate has won a wide reputation for his civic endeavors and for his leadership in moves to develop and improve conditions in this county.

"This county has been my home for many years," Beer says. "It has been a pleasure for me to take an active part in its development and progress, because I have absolute faith in it, and know that to advance, it must be properly governed."

Extras Added, But Tax Rate Still at $1.05

Discussion of Items Expected Tonight At Meeting

A revised city government budget for the present fiscal year will be presented to the city council tonight by City Manager E. A. Rolison.

Changes have been made to meet requirements since the first tentative budget was submitted in June, but the tax rate necessary will remain at $1.05, 5 cents below last year's rate, although there have been added $7000 for the Woodside road culverts, $1500 for tennis courts and $1000 for a possible special election that might have to be called on 1915 street act delinquencies.

The actual tax for governmental operation has been cut from $1.10 to 98 cents, according to Rolison, but the above capital expenditures put the rate back up to $1.05.

A 15-cent special tax in addition has been provisionally decided upon by the council to meet delinquent interest payments on 1915 act assessments.

Adoption of the budget must be made soon by the council, because the tax rate, under the charter, must be set by the first Monday in September.

Total amount of money to be raised by taxation is set at $119,253.57. The $1.05 tax rate applies to the "old town." The rate for annexed territory is $1.04 and for Carmelita and South Redwood it is 81.8 cents.

The budget calls for total general and special expenditures and revenues of $178,103.95. Of this only $116,310.15 is for general purposes.

Italian Group Endorses Young

The Italian Federation of South San Francisco has unanimously endorsed the candidacy of former Gov. C. C. Young for the governorship, it was announced today.

Several thousand members of the Italian organizations of South San Francisco and many peninsula communities have joined in the sponsorship of the candidacy of former Governor Young, it was stated.

Campaigning with the spirit and enthusiasm of her distinguished father, Miss Barbara Young is taking an active part in meetings and rallies supporting his candidacy. Proficient in the Italian language, she has addressed several gatherings of Italian societies in Northern California, in behalf of former Governor Young's candidacy. Miss Young is a graduate of Stanford University.

The tentative tax rate is set at $1.14, of which 90 cents goes to the general fund and 24 cents to the bond and improvement fund.

Jobs, Payrolls Cited As Need To Cut Relief

Bankruptcy Is Feared If Unemployment Continues

Seeing "eventual bankruptcy" in the increase of the number of persons leaning upon the government for unemployment relief Corp. James Lindsay Wilson Post No. 2310, Veterans of Foreign Wars, today came out with a strong resolution urging favorable vote on the $460,000 harbor project August 28.

The war veterans declared that "the few major industrial and business organizations now established in San Mateo county represent the development of only a small portion of the county's natural resources and industrial possibilities."

It is pointed out that in the failure of industrial progress to keep pace with the increasing demand for employment "a problem of unemployment relief has developed which is fast approaching a crisis."

"Unless immediate steps are taken to attract business or industry to the county of a size and nature that will furnish employment to the unemployed and in the near future assume, in the form of taxes or other revenue paid into the county treasury, a large portion of the ever-increasing cost of county government, thereby reducing the number of families now on the county relief rolls, increasing the buying power of the working class and relieving to a considerable degree the tax burden now borne by the property owner and small business man, the county will eventually be forced into bankruptcy," the post's resolution declared.

In endorsing the project, the post explains that it "has always been a strong advocate of intelligent progress and a staunch supporter of all movements, interests and activities, which, upon careful study from all angles give promise of resulting in material benefit to all of the people most concerned."

Because of this attitude, the post "approves and endorses the proposed establishment of a deep water harbor in San Mateo county and publicly favors and supports the special bond election to be held August 28 for the purpose of voting county bonds to the amount of $460,000 to be used in the development of such a harbor."

Ralph I. Shields is commander of the post and Walter F. Hermann adjutant. Maj. H. W. Edmonds is publicity director.

Judge Rings at Doors in Drive

Who said the women don't take an interest in politics?

Judge Percy W. Jackson of San Mateo is willing to argue the point, and Judge Jackson is in a position to know.

For the judge, campaigning for election as district attorney of San Mateo county, has gone from house to house ringing door bells and interviewing voters. In fact, he has visited 32,000 homes—no less.

And a majority of the people he meets are women.

"With the unprecedented spread of kidnaping, now a threat to practically every American home, women have taken a new interest in law enforcement," Judge Jackson says.

"There is a revival of interest in law enforcement with the growing threat of the extortionist, and I believe that women have a more direct interest than ever in election of officers who are charged with protection of the home."

Judge Jackson, for the last seven years justice of the peace at San Mateo, says this about women voters:

"The women are equally interested with men in efficient law enforcement. In fact, they are frequently as well informed or even better informed than their commuter husbands, when it comes to qualifications of candidates."

Odds Favor Merriam

The voters of San Mateo County are urged to vote for Frank F. Merriam, Republican candidate for governor on next Tuesday. Odds are being offered that he will carry the county by a two to one vote over his closest opponent.

Declaring that the whole purpose of his campaign for the Republican gubernatorial nomination has been to make a constructive appeal and that if nominated and elected his entire endeavor will be forward looking and constructive in all respects, Governor Merriam, in a statewide radio address this week, reiterated his pledge of doing everything within his power to serve all the people honestly, efficiently and unselfishly.

Merriam at the same time pledged himself to an administration in which rigid economy will be the rule. His attitude toward those who have sought to advance their own political fortunes by attacking him was made clear.

"In any contest candidates are always found who underestimate the intelligence of the people in making stupid or malicious appeals to prejudice, or who seek to advance their own political fortunes by attacking their political opponents," said the governor.

"Such has not been my object. It has been my purpose from the beginning to deal only with fundamental and practical matters.

"My opponents have chosen a different field of battle; but I have declined to meet them on their own terms; for I regard my duty to the people as being more important than my personal ambitions. Also, it would be an idle and unbecoming gesture for me at this time to launch into an attack upon the motives and the ethics of candidates who oppose my candidacy. Likewise I do not propose to answer what I regard as uncalled-for and wholly false attacks on me personally on my record in public life."

Retain Mr. Seawell

Retain Judge Emmett Seawell on the supreme bench. He is a credit to the state and his profession.

A native son, born and raised in the bay counties and a former prosecutor of Sonoma county, the judge was grand president of the Native Sons in 1933-1934.

Judge Seawell is an able jurist and is endorsed by the San Mateo County Bar Association. He should be retained in his present position. The attorneys of the state have endrosed the judge and urge his election on next Tuesday.

Elect 'Jim' McGrath

"Jim" McGrath, the popular sheriff, is making a whirlwind campaign ani has the support of many fsiends who are working like Trojans for him.

His admirers claim Mr. McGrath will be chosen at the primaries next Tuesday, defeating his opponents by a substantial vote.

Mr. McGrath is an honest and fearless officer and should be retained in office. Vote for him next Tuesday.

PORT WILL HELP SHIFT TAX LOAD FROM HOMES TO INDUSTRIES: M'GRATH

Because "it so happens that in San Mateo county there is nothing to tax but the home," Congressman John J. McGrath of San Mateo today came out wholeheartedly in favor of the San Mateo County Port development at Redwood Harbor in order to secure industries and a balanced growth for the peninsula area.

Congressman McGrath secured the $203,000 in PWA gifts which the federal government is contributing to the project.

In addition, the public on August 28 will be asked to advance the credit of the county by voting a $460,000 harbor bond issue to complete a $663,000 development.

Loss of several major industries to the peninsula area were cited by Congressman McGrath because of the lack of deep water facilities. He said:

"The Illinois Pacific Glass Company with 600 highly-paid employes was offered 40 acres of land worth $60,000 at San Mateo. After investigating, they declined the gift as they discovered San Mateo could not ship by water and the difference between water and railway rates would be $15,000 per year."

Another industrial loss suffered by the peninsula through lack of harbor facilities was the Ford plant, which went to Richmond.

Concerning the loss of this business to San Mateo county, Congressman McGrath said:

"A decade back the bay of San Francisco was handling 2,000,000 tons of freight, much of it coming from the interior valleys. Now there are 4,000,000 tons and 50 per cent of it is being handled on other waterfronts because San Francisco cannot accomodate it."

Why industries are needed was explained by Congressman McGrath in the following statement:

"In this county it happens there is nothing to tax but the home. Taxes will continue to fall on the home as long as we continue to be a purely residential county.

"We have 50,000 acres of potential industrial land valued at $10 per acre. The man who owns a small home assessed at $1,000 pays as high a tax as the man who owns a hundred acres of this industrial land.

"Industrial lands must be made valuable by making it possible for industries to locate on them. Industries will locate when rail and water are brought together.

"I am earnestly pleading for your support for Redwood Harbor because that location is the nearest to completion as a public port and is assured of federal support. If any other place in San Mateo county were more developed I would urge that other place.

"I know that when other developments in San Mateo county are requested the Redwood City people will give the same generous support that I am asking from you and all of San Mateo county at this time."

Harper Is Honored At San Mateo Tea

With scores of his supporters in attendance, Police Chief John J. Harper, Burlingame, candidate for sheriff of San Mateo county, will be the honored guest this afternoon at a public tea given in his honor at the Hotel Benjamin Franklin.

Arrangements for the tea were completed today by Mrs. Frances Smythe, prominent Burlingame club woman who has been active in the Harper-for-Sheriff campaign. Chief Harper will be the principal speaker. He will speak of his campaign. All sections of the San Mateo county will be represented at the tea. It will be from 3 o'clock to 5 o'clock p. m.

"We are inviting the public to attend," said Mrs. Frances Smythe, "and we anticipate a huge attendance."

Wednesday, at a luncheon at the Palace Hotel given in Chief Harper's honor and which was attended by more than one hundred commuters, a campaign theme song —"Harper Days Are Here Today" —was introduced by Edna deNunzie, a member of the San Francisco Opera Company. At the luncheon a strong commuters' vote was assured the Burlingame police chief.

The state government of Saxony, Germany, is to construct a plant for conversion of lignite into gasoline on a commercial scale.

'COURIER' URGES PUBLIC SUPPORT OF PORT BONDS

(BELMONT COURIER)

When the first explorers viewed with amazement the great inland sea, now familiary known as San Francisco Bay, little could they visualize the great changes which would take place in so short a time.

Before them were mosiquito-infested swamps. We are told mustard stood as high as their saddles when they traveled through the valley. Scattered Indian settlements were the only signs of life.

It does not take a great stretch of the imagination as placed on these first early settlers to look forward to another vast change which could take place. By this we mean the industrialization of this whole marsh area in San Mateo county.

Home owners cannot bear the tax burden in the future to sustain the necessary and natural development of a purely suburban and home-living community. By voting for the harbor bonds on August 28 industries will move in on the county bay front. In the future they will bear the brunt of taxation.

By urging the vote for the harbor bonds we are not favoring increase of taxes for the sake of a "bigger and better" administration. We have already said in our columns the extent of the administration must remain within the limits of the taxpayers' purse.

But, there are times when we must look beyond the problems at hand and look into the future. This is one of these times. We urge the passing of the harbor bonds.

JOBS, PAYROLLS FOLLOW INLAND PORT'S OPENING

Stockton 'Besieged' By Industries Seeking Harbor Localities

That Stockton has been "besieged with inquiries regarding opportunities for investment and industrial development" since the opening of its harbor is the information given today by A. M. Robertson, secretary of the Stockton chamber, in a communication to Howard I. Wood, secretary of the San Mateo County Harbor Committee.

Robertson detailed a story of "jobs, payrolls, steady positions, trade expansion and other benefits" in his communication to Wood.

The development of the inland port, started in 1901 "because of the vision and foresight of the Stockton chamber," was undertaken because of the realization "that such a port would be of tremendous direct benefit to the shippers and receivers of freight in the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys," Robertson said.

Indirectly, he said, Stockton saw that it would benefit from new industries. That it has so benefited is a well-known story.

Visited by 300 freighters since its opening in February, 1933, Stockton has seen 500,000 tons of freight move over its docks.

"Bringing to Stockton of this large number of vessels alone has stimulated local business through the purchase of supplies and the spending of large sums of money by the officers and crews of the ships, Robertson said.

"Hundreds of Jobs—"

"The vast tonnage which has moved over our docks has likewise brought a large amount of revenue to the city because of the hundreds of jobs which have been created."

"Stockton," Robertson said, "is now beginning to reap additional direct benefit through the location of various types of industry already constructed and under construction at this time. As an example, an oil terminal has already been constructed at a cost of $55,000 with additions planned at this time to cost an additional $30,000. This terminal has created permanent jobs and has been of directed benefit to the city."

The Santa Cruz Cement Company recently completed a $100,000 plant, Robertson reported. "This terminal has likewise created a number of permanent positions," he said.

"At the present time a $245,000 cotton compress is under construction which will make possible the moving of over 60,000 bales of cotton through Stockton," Wood was informed.

"This will be the means of creating permanent jobs and temporary jobs over a period of several months for a large number of our local people," Robertson said.

More Permanent Jobs

Also under construction is a $155,000 grain terminal which, when completed, will handle annually over 100,000 tons of grain "and likewise will create a large number of steady positions."

"It is needless to say," Robertson pointed out, "that the $6,000,000 which was spent on our initial port development created a large payroll which was spent in Stockton and that the construction now underway, including additions to our terminals costing $706,000, is likewise placing in our local channels trade a vast amount of money through the positions which have been created."

Again touching upon the job angle, Robertson said:

"Industrial projects now under way and those contemplated will create hundreds of new permanent jobs which will result in the building of homes, increase in assessed valuation and reduction of taxes."

Expecting additional industries, Robertson says:

"At the present time we are negotiating with a number of prospective industries which we are confident will select Stockton as a location, adding millions to our industrial plants and payrolls."

Where the Office Seeks the Man

234,000 Write-In Votes

were piled up for McKee for mayor of New York two years ago when a mass of aroused citizens marched to the polls and wrote in his name against all the obstacles put in their way, despite the battle against the mechanical difficulties of attempting to write in a vote on complicated voting machines.

10,000 Citizens

of San Mateo County will do that same thing Tuesday and qualify an independent candidate — drafted for office by citizens themselves — for the November general election ballot by writing in J. ED. FARRELL for Sheriff.
There are no obstacles; there are no intricate voting machines to struggle against. All that is necessary is the simple process of writing or tracing in the name—J. ED FARRELL—in the space provided for that purpose on the ballot.

"I feel highly honored, and am happy to accept the support of this write-in campaign."—J. Ed. Farrell.

An Impressive Tribute

One of the most impressive tributes to the character and ability of a man that we have noted in many a day is the persistence of demand by San Mateo county voters that J. E. Farrell, police chief of Atherton, be a candidate for the office of sheriff.

When importunings by close friends and other acquaintances failed to induce him to declare himself a candidate, petitions formally urging him to do so were placed in circulation, without his knowledge, and signed by a large number of voters. When the deadline filing day had passed and no candidacy had been announced by the Atherton chief, the demand for his services in the sheriff's office assumed new and more energetic expression. A "write-in" campaign developed, and has gained such headway that it is regarded as the peninsula's outsetnding political phenomenon of this year's primary.

Whatever the outcome of the movement may be, Mr. Farrell will have the profound satisfaction that comes from an unsolicited and undeniably sincere expression of faith and admiration of his qualities by a large part of the population of his county.

The circumstances being what they are, here is a case in which the office truly is seeking the man. And that is a relatively rare experience in election politics.

More and more citizens of San Mateo County are recognizing that there is a principle involved in this write-in campaign for J. ED. FARRELL for Sheriff.
In a true sense it is government "of the people, by the people and for the people" where so many are accepting the challenge to select a qualified sheriff of their own initiative.
The principle involved and the spirit of the write-in move are exemplified in an editorial in the Palo Alto Times of August 17, reprinted above.

Watershed Cover Burned on Skyline

More than 100 acres of brush watershed cover along the Skyline boulevard near the highway maintenance station back of San Mateo were burned over late Saturday by a grass and brush blaze.

It was extinguished by the crew of County Fire Warden Bert Werder, who said that the destruction of watershed cover was the main damage.

Sequoia Opens Next Monday

Enrollment of 1,250 For New Record Anticipated

Enrollment of 1,250 students is expected at Sequoia Union High School when it reopens for the autumn term on Monday, according to an announcement today by Principal A. C. Argo.

Such a figure would be approximately 75 more than the registration of last fall. At least 100 more students will enter the mid-year, it is expected, with the total registration likely to reach 1,550, an increase of 85 over last year.

Sequoia's faculty will remain about the same. Only one new instructor has been added, Joseph DeBrum of San Jose State College and Stanford University, who will teach in the commercial department.

Pupils transferring from other schools may register at the high school Friday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. They should inquire at the connseling office at Sequoia. Night school registration will start at 7 o'clock next Monday evening.

Buses on the first morning of school, Monday, will run according to last spring's schedule, Mr. Argo announced. Later changes will be made to suit the needs of the pupils.

Pupils are asked to come prepared to pay the following fees: Student body, $2; towel, $2; boys' league dues, 25 cents, or girls' society dues, 50 cents; key deposit, 25 cents, or combination lock, $1.

For a list of the entering freshmen see story on page 3 in today's Tribune.

Two Face Charges Of Distributing 'Red' Leaflets

Police and prosecuting officials today were conferring on what charges will be pressed against two men arrested on Jackson street here Monday after Communist party pamphlets had been left at several houses along the street.

The two men, Bernardino Romero, 43, Redwood City, and Rafael Gonzalez, 54, Santa Clara, were being held in the county jail on vagrancy charges, with bail set at $1000 each.

Police Officer J. A. Snider, who arrested them, said that he had one witness to whom the men handed the literature, that other pieces were left at houses and that they had still others in their possession when they were arrested.

Emil Berndtsen's Mother Dies Abroad

Captors Liberate 4-Square Minister

Askew said the trio robbed him of $40 he had in his pocket to buy bricks for his new tabernacle and then forced him to take several tablets which caused him to go to sleep.

Employment in Belgium is now above last year's figures.

Criminals Versus Our Unemployed

Facts of a startling nature exposing the extravagance of the present sheriff's office are revealed herewith today, for the enlightenment of the voters of San Mateo county, so that they may cast an intelligent vote next Tuesday at the primary election.

These facts, gleaned from the court records of San Mateo county, are bona fide and undeniable.

However, for the sake of true sportsmanship, and so that opponents may not raise the cry of "last minute tactics" these facts are published today, Friday, August 24, exactly four days before the primary election, thus giving our opponents ample time in which to deny or respond to these allegations.

We present, herewith, the records of San Mateo county to show, that while taxpayers of San Mateo county and county officials labored diligently and conscienciously to stretch public funds, so that they might meet the drastic demands of the unfortunate, the unemployed, those of our citizens who, out of necessity were thrown upon the county relief rolls, the present sheriff's office engaged in a spending spree of more than $1000 for fancy foodstuffs which, allegedly, were fed to felons, law breakers, who were incarcerated behind the walls of the San Mateo county jail.

Not even the inmates of the San Mateo Community Hospital, highly respected citizens, who by virtue of their citizenship in this county and because of their financial condition are allowed admittance into this institution, were given the opportunity of enjoying the delicacies in fodstuffs that the law breakers entrusted to the care of the sheriff were allowed.

For months, public spirited men and women fought to solve the problem of starving San Mateo county families whose tragic condition was brought about by the unemployment of the head of these same families.

And yet in the face of this most heart rending situation, a sheriff of this same county provided delicacies for felons which even caused comment by a high court official in rendering a decision.

County officials refused to acknowledge the $1000 bill for these foodstuffs. Why? Because, first of all, they were beyond all proportion. Secondly, because they had NOT been put through the proper and legal channls, and county officials, representatives of the people, refused to be a part of such transactions.

And so, into court went the issue, because the county officials, sensing the extravagance of the sheriff's office, refused outright to pay for the luxuries that were passed out to the sheriff, his deputies and felons, while the unemployed of this county, reduced to pov erty and forced to accept charity from the county, ATE BEANS.

From August 15 to October 5, 1931, the sheriff's office had expended $1089.93 for food, which included luxuries and which might well grace the menu of any expensive and high priced metropolitan hotel.

T-bone steaks, cartons of cigarettes, filet steaks, chickens, tenderloin steaks, mushrooms, jellies, jams, cookies, pimentoes, pork chops, raisins, pineapples, fruit salads, cocktail sauce, and many more delicacies, which might well have graced the festive board of royalty, while the unemployed of San Mateo county humbly sat down to nourishing, but simple foods—the best that relief organizations could afford to give them.

Lest our opponents attempt to deny these allegations, we cite the records of th courthouse of some of the purchases made by the sheriff's office. Here they are:

August 21.—Three chickens, six bottles Worchester Sauce, six bottles of horseradish.

August 24.—Seven T-bone steaks.

August 25.—Five cans of mushrooms, 12 cans of grapefruit.

August 29.—Ten chickens.

Sept. 5.—Two quarts of olives, six cans of pineapple, nine jars of olives, 15 cans of jams and jellies, six cans of cocktail sauce, asparagus tips, pickles, sardines and cookies.

Sept. 8.—Four cartons of cigarettes.

Sept. 10.—Two cartons of cigarettes, four filet steaks.

Sept. 12.—Three cartons cigarettes, four pounds of T-bone steaks.

Sept. 15.—Six bottles Lea & Perrins sauce, three cartons of cigarettes.

Sept. 17.—Three cartons cigarettes, four filet steaks.

Sept. 19—Twelve cans of pimentos, half box Price jelly.

Sept. 21.—Twelve pork chops.

Sept. 30.—Eight sirloin steaks.

Oct. 3.—Nine filet steaks, five pounds cottage cheese.

Oct. 5.—Fourteen T-bone steaks.

Study these purchases by the sheriff's office and then realize the suffering of our unfortunate fellow citizens who did not fare so well.

We need, NOW, more than ever before, a competent official—Elect

The Ledger Is Out Of Balance And Your Home Is In THE RED

THE UNEMPLOYED DO NOT WANT RELIEF—THEY WANT PERMANENT JOBS

PORT DEVELOPMENT will bring terminal rates to San Mateo County giving to the people Cheaper Goods. Lumber alone would be $2.60 per 1000 feet less.

Port experts say, "San Mateo County's Harbor on Redwood Creek is bound to be successful—it is a natural set-up, from the standpoint of tonnage from the back country and already existing water channel. It is an inexpensive port to develop." These experts have made surveys showing that in Santa Clara County alone there exists 1000 tons a day which is available for San Mateo County Port. If this tonnage were moving over the docks NOW, $1000 a day of outside money would be flowing into San Mateo County.

The United States Government will give outright $203,000 to develop this port if the people will lend their credit to the extent of $460,000 in bonds to secure a further loan from the government at a low rate of interest.

Port Authorities say "That when San Mateo County Port is operating these bonds will be self-liquidating." In this event you as a property owner will not be out one cent.

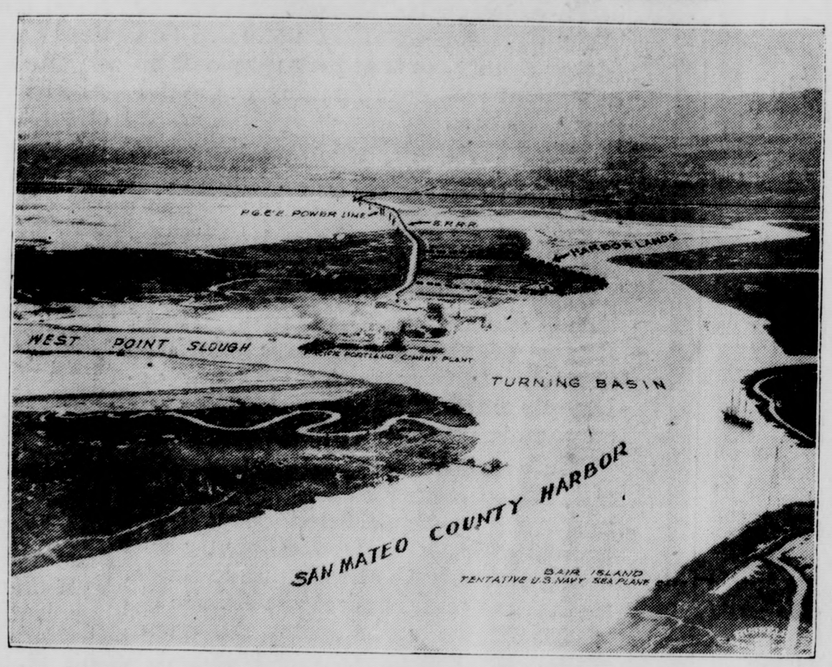
On the other hand, if the Harbor proves a complete failure, discrediting the surveys of some of the best engineers and port authorities in the United States, the cost to you cannot be more than 5½ cents per $100 of assessed valuation or $1 per year for the average taxpayer.

Wouldn't you take a chance on $1 a year to gain for your county its industrial heritage; to relieve your home of the entire county tax burden; to place unemployed in permanent jobs; to insure the the flow of outside money into San Mateo County?

Stockton passed $6,000,000 (Six Million Dollars) worth of bonds on its $32,000,000 assessed valuation and in 18 months of operation has become a thriving port. San Mateo County is asking only $460,000 (Four Hundred Sixty Thousand) on an assessed valuation of $50,000,000.

Ask the property owner of Stockton if he would give up his harbor?

As Development at Our Door Will Look



How the proposed San Mateo County Port development will look is shown in this photo-diagram prepared by Ronald Campbell, planning technician. In the channel marked San Mateo County Harbor will be 27 feet of water. A turning basin as indicated will be dredged. The wharves and transit shed will be located adjacent to the lands of the huge cement plant. Bair Island, favorably mentioned as the site for a several million dollar seaplane base undertaking, is shown in the foreground. The county harbor site is four miles south of the San Mateo bridgehead.

As long as the industrial area of San Mateo County lies undeveloped the entire tax burden for government and unemployed relief must be borne by the home and property owner.

As long as steps are not taken to create new and larger payrolls an increasing portion of our skilled and unskilled labor and our white collared class is going to be on relief rolls.

As long as these two situations exist, property owners—rich or poor—will pay the tax bills.

EATING UP OUR HOMES

The man who is unfortunately forced to take County Relief Work, but owns a small parcel of property, is fastly "eating-up" his own home.

The man who is in moderate circumstances is virtually donating his home to unemployed relief.

The man who is wealthy is paying in an increased proportion as his fellow property and home owners call upon him for relief.

Stop donating your home to unemployed relief—create permanent jobs—that's what the unemployed man wants . . . . and it costs you less.

"YOUR HOME IS IN THE RED"

Today your home is paying the entire load because San Mateo County has been developed One-Sided—primarily residential. Homes pay the major portion of San Mateo County's taxes. Here is how to BALANCE THE COUNTY:

PORT DEVELOPMENT will bring to San Mateo County terminal rates and attract industry. The development of factories at the waterfront will increase many hundred times over the assessed valuation of the flat waste land along the bay (ideal only for industry) and absorb from your home and property an enormous share of the tax burden.

AN $18,000 EXAMPLE

Just one industry now operating, built on land assessed at $10 per acre, which would net the county about 50c per acre in taxes is NOW paying the county $18,000 a year in taxes.

Continue this process through Port Development and shift a proper portion of your taxes to this undeveloped industrial area.

PORT DEVELOPMENT will bring into San Mateo County $100,000 in payrolls alone for each 100,000 tons of freight shipped over its wharves.

PORT DEVELOPMENT in addition to furnishing jobs for San Mateo County men in the construction of wharves, transit sheds, etc., will in itself be an industry and give continual and permanent emplyoment.

PORT DEVELOPMENT through attracting and establishing along the Bayshore factories in those areas zoned for industry, will create regular jobs for the now unemployed and bring to this county larger payrolls.

Sheriff McGrath Backers Advance Campaign Points

Supporters of James J. McGrath for sheriff of San Mateo county today stated that they were confident of a victory for their candidate. The endorsement of Sheriff McGrath by the La Fayette club of San Mateo county, the Voters League of Daly City and many other organizations from one end of the county to the other is an indication of his strength, they state. They also point to the leadership and ability displayed by McGrath during the strike when he organized the law enforcement facilities of the county and state to force food trucks through the picket lines safely into San Francisco, for which he has been highly complimented.

At the same time his friends are bringing to the attention of the public the 10 points on which they base Sheriff McGrath's campaign and which are printed herewith:

1. James J. McGrath is a man who has demonstrated his knowledge of modern methods of crime detection and crime prevention by the conduct of his office.
2. He is a man who is vitally interested in the progress, growth and welfare of our own San Mateo county and has no outside interests.
3. A man who has the physical and moral courage to deal with all of the many serious problems confronting an officer of the law in this day and age.
4. A man who has a strong sense of duty combined with a pleasing personality.
5. A man who is a trained and experienced officer of the law in all of its departments.
6. A man who is energetic, alert, enthusiastic and conscientious in all that he undertakes.
7. A man of absolute honesty and integrity.
8. A man of demonstrated executive ability to operate his office with precision, efficiency and economy.
9. A man who is qualified to safeguard the citizens and especially the youth of our county.
10. A man hose only boss is his own conscience.

REALTOR BOARD GIVES BACKING TO PORT BONDS

Unanimous endorsement of the Redwood City District Real Estate Board was added today to the fast growing list urging support of the San Mateo County Harbor development August 28.

The board met at its monthly dinner yesterday at the Fox Shoppe, with Henry Witte, president, in the chair.

Benefits of the expenditure of $663,000 on the project at this time were seen by the board. Voters on August 28 will be asked to approve $463,000 in bonds as a credit on the development. The federal government will give $203,000 toward the project in gifts.

Fair Values Will Bring Equality, Jackson States

"Equalization of taxes does not necessarily mean that all taxes will be lowered or that all taxes will be raised, but it does mean that all property will be assessed at a fair value and that taxes will be based on that fair valuation. To the property owner who is over-assessed, equalization will bring relief in the form of a lowered assessment and a subsequent lowered tax; to the under-assessed property owner it will bring a higher assessment and an increased tax," states Clarence W. Jackson, candidate for county assessor of San Mateo county.

"If elected to the office of county assessor, I pledge myself to work earnestly and conscientiously toward the completion of this survey so that tax equalization may become a reality in San Mateo county."

Farrell Backers To Tell Method On Write-In Vote

Definite instructions of how to cast a write-in vote for J. Ed. Farrell for sheriff in the primary election so that there can be no doubt of its legality will be given to the citizens of San Mateo county before election time, J. L. Flynn Jr., secretary of the Farrell-for-Sheriff committee, announced today.

The election laws of the state do not discriminate against write-in votes, he pointed out.

Immediate goal of the citizens supporting the Farrell write-in campaign is to place his name on the November general election ballot. Polling sufficient votes to make the present police chief at Atherton one of the two high men will ensure this, Flynn stated.

The total of more than 230,000 votes given Acting Mayor Joseph V. McKee in the New York City election of 1932 by means of a write-in in the face of the mechanical difficulties of voting machines and the obstacles placed in its way by the Tammany organization is cited by him as an example of the strength that can be wielded by a write-in.

Brady Declares Hoffmann Fitted For D. A. Post

"Voters of San Mateo county will make no mistake in electing Edward Hoffmann to the office of District Attorney," declared Edward Brady, prominent labor leader, in a statement issued today.

"I have known Mr. Hoffmann for years, and I recommend him without the least hesitation. He is known throughout the county for his integrity, his honesty, and his fearlessness," Brady said. "The people will find that he has all of the qualifications necessary for the office. He is a resident taxpayer of San Mateo, and a graduate of Stanford. He has had many years of actual experience in state and federal courts, and in the problems of administrative law which will face him after election."

Said sale will be made to satisfy the obligation secured by and pursuant to the power of sale conferred in a certain deed of trust executed by Frank P. Walcott, a single man, as trustor, to Asa E. Hull and J. L. Ross, as trustees for San Mateo County Building and Loan Association, a corporation, as beneficiary, dated March 29th, 1929, and recorded April 8th, 1929, in Volume 409 of Official Records, at page 100, San Mateo County records; that trustor has made default in payment of principal and interest on said deed of trust and the promissory note thereby secured and in the payment of taxes on said real property, which default still continues.

The 175-ton organ in Royal Albert Hall, London, contains 10,491 pipes and is said to be the largest and finest pipe organ in the world.

Col. Peterson's Highway Efforts Are Outstanding

Outstanding in the achievements of Col. Frederick Peterson, candidate for return to the assembly for a second term, is the securing of $836,000 in road allocations for San Mateo county.

Peterson has been an outstanding backer of county highway development. He worked since the last sessions for the widening of El Camino Real from Beresford to Palo Alto; the Ocean Shore highway, and the South San Francisco underpass.

Ferrell Record Is Put Forward In Vote Appeal

Supporters of Gilbert D. Ferrell today cited the record of this candidate for district attorney as an important factor in the race for the office.

Ferrell graduated from Stanford Law School in 1908 and has practiced here and in San Francisco ever since. For two years he was assistant district attorney.

He has served as president of the Burlingame Chamber of Commerce, the Federated Peninsula Chambers of Commerce and the Oak Knoll Improvement Club; he has also taken an active interest in all civic affairs.

The fact that he has without remuneration championed the rights of the people on several occasions is also brought out by his supporters.

Do Tax Savings Interest You?

The people are entitled to know whether or not their public officials are administering the affairs of their office in the interest of the taxpayers who employ them.

A policy of economy and frugality in public office is as necessary and desirable as in the personal budget or in private business.

The office of County Clerk has been administered by the incumbent, Elmore B. Hinman, during the present term, under a policy of retrenchment and economy which has resulted in many savings, some of which are enumerated below:

Printing of Affidavits of registration by change of form and size	$1,060
Preparing precinct indexes to registration (2 elections)	8,500
Salvage and re-use of election supplies	600
Transporting of election returns to office at Court House	400
Legal blanks formerly furnished, though not required by law (estimated)	2,000
Publishing ordinances, once as required by law, instead of seven times as formerly	5,373
Mileage of civil jurors, now paid by litigants	3,340
Approximate total savings on above items	$21,273

In addition to the savings above listed the actual total expenses, as set out in the County Controllers Annual Report, shows a decrease as follows:

County Clerk's Total Administrative Cost—
Year ended June 30, 1930	$26,527.02
Year ended June 30, 1934	25,903.15
Or a saving to taxpayers of	$ 623.87

Any one interested, can easily verify these figures by reference to data in the office of the County Clerk, or County Controller.

These economies have been brought about by hard work and intelligent application to the job.

To insure a continuation of this sort of management return

ELMORE B. HINMAN

Said sale will be made to satisfy the obligation secured by and pursuant to the power of sale conferred in a certain deed of trust executed by KOTOHARU INOUGE, also known as Kotoharu Inouye, and SUMIYE INOUGE, also known as Sumiye Inouye, his wife, and NOBUO HIGAKI and MOTOKO HIGAKI, his wife, as trustors, to L. A. Behrens and E. R. Whitehead, as trustees for First National Bank of San Mateo County, a corporation, as beneficiary, dated September 10th, 1930, and recorded September 22nd, 1930, in Volume 495 of Official Records, at page 234, San Mateo County Records; that trustors have made default in the payment of principal and interest on said deed of trust and the promissory note thereby secured and in the payment of taxes on said real property, which default still continues.

Notice of breach of said obligation and election to sell said real property was recorded in the office of said county recorder on December 14th, 1933, in Volume 610 of Official Records, page 268, and more than three months from the date of the recording of said notice of default and breach and election to sell have elapsed.

This notice is given in compliance with the demand heretofore made on said trustees by First National Bank of San Mateo County, a corporation.

BELMONT MAN HURT

SAN MATEO, Aug. 22.—Chester Taylor, Belmont, suffered cuts and bruises and a possible arm fracture last night when his car collided with one driven by Aiden D. Olrody, San Francisco, at El Camino Real and Third avenue here.

Umbrellas are supplied free to patrons by a theatre in Madrid in case of rain.

Harper Looking To Silent Vote For His Election

"A strong silent vote in San Mateo county will elect Police Chief John J. Harper, Burlingame, sheriff of this county!"

Such was the prediction today of M. G. McClinton, former Burlingame mayor, civic leader and general chairman of the Harper-for-Sheriff Clubs throughout San Mateo county.

"I make that prediction because of a recent survey completed by our workers throughout the county. We find that San Mateo county voters are not being swayed by antiquated political methods which called for the election of a candidate simply because he was popular or because his friends felt that their candidate needed the job.

"The issue in this campaign is really based on the ability of the candidate. We have in John J. Harper a man with 25 years experience in police work. He is an attorney and as such knows the law.

"He has shown himself to be capable of heading an important office such as the sheriff's office of San Mateo county."

John J. McGrath Secured Grants For County Port

Leaders in the John J. McGrath for Congress re-election campaign believe that the record made by Congressman McGrath will carry him as a winner in the present election. The fact that Mr. McGrath has lived up to every pledge that he has made and has been endorsed by the Roosevelt administration is cited as an example of the fine work that this candidate has accomplished.

Mr. A. J. Hirschey, his campaign manager, points to the fact that every possible grant for San Mateo county and the entire district was secured. Labor interests and veterans relief are cited as paramount factors in McGrath's program.

That San Mateo county owes a great deal of the success of the securing of a federal grant for the harbor to Congressman McGrath was expressed here today by local civic leaders in the harbor movement.

FINED AFTER ACCIDENT

BURLINGAME, Aug. 22.—Joseph Shepherd, 34, of Centerville, was fined $25 on a charge of reckless driving in police court here today. Shepherd's car collided with one driven by Edwin M. Hansen, Burlingame, at Winchester Court and Bayshore highway last night.

Cowgill Public Service Record Is Lengthy One

"Everyone rich or poor, regardless of race or creed or any other factor will receive a respectful hearing if I am elected to the board of supervisors of San Mateo county," John E. Cowgill, candidate for supervisor in the Second District, declared today.

Cowgill, a real estate man and one of the outstanding civic workers of San Carlos for the past 19 years and mayor of that city for two years, is at present in charge of the San Carlos depot and a member of the San Carlos council.
